Mission

Develop Your Character

"Character" is a defining principle with equal relevance both on and off the stage. Studies have shown that one's social, emotional, ethical and creative skills are the building blocks to the development of "Character." Camp Broadway's programs adhere to the belief that engagement in the theatre is an effective strategy in helping parents and educators teach their children about becoming responsible, ethical people. Camp Broadway enables our "Cast of Characters" to immerse themselves in musical theatre and drama as a way to study real and fictitious characters whose stories are told through dialogue, song and dance. In the process, they learn the necessary skills to perform successfully at
